Dear Partners in the Faith and the Fight,

This email contains missionary Lynn Kennedy's latest news from Burkina Faso, West Africa and Shattering Darkness Ministries. We hope you are blessed by reading about God's work!

Updates

Greetings from Burkina! As I reflect on my whirlwind visit to the US this fall, I am in awe of God's blessings for me and the Shattering Darkness ministries. Our Lord is active in our midst when we see good and in the darkest moments.

Continuing 'The Power of One' newsletter series, I rejoice in this story of His activity and prayer warriors John and Mary Dolvin.

The Dolvins chose my name from a missionary prayer tree. They knew only my name and the country in which I served. They prayed for me daily...for 15 years!!

During a recent 4 day trip to Hiawassee Georgia, I was invited to speak at a Baptist retirement center. John and Mary were there! As God's story became clearer we hugged and marveled at the hand of our Lord in bringing us together.

Mary told me that for many years of her life she desired to share Jesus with the peoples of Africa. She was disappointed that the opportunity never came. I was able to assure her that she and John were participants in every action of our Lord over the last 15 years in Burkina. They share in the spiritual harvest of souls who came to Christ, of bodies healed, of care for orphans and the hungry, of clean water provided from new wells, of churches built, of leaders trained, of idols destroyed because they prayed.

The power of One. Our Lord Jesus using one praying couple to impact eternity.

As we come to the close of 2012 may each of us consider the lives that have been impacted by our faithful praying. Will 2013 be a year of fervent prayer for the lost and for impacting service for Christ? May we set out hearts to honor the name of Christ... recalling Isaiah 26:8, "Our desire is for Your name and renown."

Hidden in the One shattering darkness,

Lynn
